I represent, warrant, and certify that I am not prohibited or restricted by any federal, state or local law, ordinance or regulation from possessing or purchasing ammunition or firearms, or being in the vicinity were firearms are used or stored.

I certify that my answers to the above questions are true and correct. Should any change occur in my stats regarding my ability to exercise my Second Amendment right to bear arms or a decline in my physical fitness and/or mental alertness, I will immediately notify the RCRPA Chief RSO & Executive Board and understand my RSO status may be revoked and replaced with a more suitable volunteer position.

Red Cliffs Rifle & Pistol Association requires the passing of the NRA Certification Class and RCRPA membership to become a Range Safety Officer. We also require our RSOs to pass a background investigation. The background investigation may be waived if you possess a valid Utah Concealed Firearm Permit (CFP), and we require all RSO applicants to have the CFP, or to have the CFP pending before taking our NRA RSO Class.

The COST of the NRA RSO Certification Class is $100.00. You also agree to renew your NRA RSO Certification as necessary and furnish renewal proof to the RCRPA. To maintain your volunteer RSO status with the RCRPA, you agree to volunteer a minimum of 60 hours per year (4-5hr shifts = 12-15/yr) and to follow our standard operating procedures. Understand that by signing below and taking our Range Safety Officer course, you have entered into a legal contract with us!
